True/False

1. I should bring silverware, wine glasses, napkins and a cooler to the event.
FALSE: It's a no from me dang. Glassware, silverware, napkins, ice and a cooler will be available upon request.
2. I should bring my creative table decorations such as flowers, centerpieces and chair covers.
TRUE: You got it dude. We will have a contest for table décor and the winner will be announced at the end of the night.
3. Mindful of the limited space of Quiz Night, I won't bring decorations that might block the view of others, like balloons, or haul in large serving items, like a taco cart or a frozen margarita machine, yada yada yada, which could be really awesome but just won't fit in the gym.
TRUE: The event will sell out, and space is limited to allow as many people to share in this fun night as possible.

Short essay. Read question and respond in paragraph form.

1. What is the agenda for the evening?
Doors will open at 5:30 p.m. for mingling and table setup. Schwing! The Quiz will begin promptly at 7:30 p.m. with an intermission for a live auction. Please stay tuned for our live auction and raffle offerings.
2. Will there be an online auction for Quiz Night?

Yes. There will be a weeklong online auction with your favorite Sacred Heart exclusives so you can sashay away with prizes such as Front Row Prize Day seating and Sign-Up Parties for parents and students! That's hot.

Well isn't that special? A night of community, trivia and dinner in the Sacred Heart Gym all with fellow SHS supporters. We sure think so!

In January, visit www.shschicago.org/quiznight for more information about registration, sponsorships, raffle, the online auction and more!

Registration will open January 31 and closes by February 24.
